

Cedric Pang

Cedric Ping Kong Pang, 77 years old, peacefully died on September 6, 2023, at home in Vista, California. He and his partner of 44 years, Thomas Crawford White, were laid to rest at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, Hawaii.

Cedric was a software engineer, and is best known in the San Diego area for his excellent job as a director and respected bridge player and pro. He had a talent for making people feel special and kept his family and friends close. He often spoke of his cherished friendships within the bridge community that started when he was twelve years old playing with friends after school. In addition to computers and bridge, Cedric enjoyed growing plants, preparing and eating foods from different cultures, and constructing Lego projects.

Family and friends enjoyed having Cedric in their lives and will remember him for his loyal friendship, quick wit, and eagerness to try new ventures.

Cedric is survived by a brother, Douglas Samuel Pang, and a sister, Melissa Pang, nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews. Condolences may be sent to Melissa Pang, 6154 Wakine Place, Honolulu, Hawaii, 96821.
